

This is a proposed degree plan, posted only for purposes of review and discussion. This notice will be removed when a plan is finalized. Thank you.

Angelicum Academy & Catholic Distance University Bachelor of Arts in Liberal Arts Degree Plan

Sample Degree Plan

Having completed one of the Angelicum/CDU AA degree plans, students selecting the BA in Liberal Arts degree plan minor in either: theology, philosophy, history, or sacred scripture by taking any six of the courses below from a single area, or double major by taking all ten from a single area. Students may transfer into this CDU BA program their other 30 Angelicum Academy college credits (30 being applied to their AA degree) and take the following to complete their BA within two semesters of completion of 12th grade (or longer if they wish). The course arrangement/order below is flexible. The 8-week courses are designed to allow students to take two such 3-credit courses back-to-back, in one semester. 12-week courses begin in the first Term of any semester, and result in a four week overlap with the 2nd Term courses. The arrangement below results in 30 college credits and the CDU BA degree in Liberal Arts.

Fall (or Summer):

Term 1: 1 Philosophy course
1 300+ level course in any area
1 300+ level course in any area

Term 2: 1 Philosophy course
1 300+ level course in any area

Spring (or Fall):

Term 1: 1 300+ level course in any area
1 300+ level course in any area
1 300+ level course in any area

Term 2: 1 300+ level course in any area
1 300+ level course in any area